About Us

Techflixpro Team

Relevance . Consistency

Techflixpro was started up in Nov 2017 with a team of three members, initially referred to as Techflix.Inc. The team name was and is still CyberSquad256.
Consistency: As of now we're still believe in working as a team, I would say it makes creating of lines code easy through sharing of ideas.
Relevance: It's all about improving what a line of code can do. As a result, we're working upon including new services - i.e Web apps and Android applications.
